

At the end of project we will find which algorithm works best for taken dataset. This will also conclude which algorithm will work best with similar dataset. This research will be helpful for further analyzing related data. One algorithm implementation and analysis will contribute to report on that algorithm will be my contribution. This project needs proper learning of algorithms and also implementation of algorithms. According to my analysis to complete this project, it will need at least 2 months.