At the end of this project, we will come to understand which algorithm will give best result according to our dataset. This will be helpful for further research on Covid-19 which is the cause of the running pandemic. My contribution in this project will be analyze the data based on a algorithm and writing the necessary information related to algorithm. In my knowledge to complete this project it will take probably 2/3 months.